

What People Say About Our Programs

Very practical information.

Your talks contributed to the health & stability of our Presbyterate.

The content was well received by our priests, generated much needed self-evaluation, and inspired thoughts for greater self-care and fraternity.

It is wonderful SJVC works directly with priests addressing serious problems and concerns we often face in our daily work.

This was my best convocation-it was magnificent.

It is good to know how to cope effectively with stress and anxiety in our busy role.

You gave us valuable insights and recommendations for healthy and holy living in religious community.

(I am) most grateful for the healing, recovery and reconciliation that took place these past few days.

We appreciate you helping us to deal with the issues amongst our brothers.

This is a crucially important service you provide for the Church.

Very helpful, practical and productive.

You offer a very life giving ministry.

Thank you for your good work.
